

The Boy in the Gas Chamber

Who Wasn't Allowed to Dance

Based on a true 1940's Nevada story

Special Performances:

Bruka Theatre 99 N. Virginia St. Reno, NV 89501

Friday, Nov. 8th at 7PM (reception to follow)

Saturday Nov. 9th at 6 PM

Tickets: $10

Contact Bruka Theatre to reserve a seat 775-323-3221

Once upon a time, a disabled boy loved to watch his Grandpa, a puppet maker, dance. But now, on the evening of Friday, September 29, 1944 that Grandpa holds a telegram in his hand. Upon opening it, he will learn if his grandson, now a teenager, has been executed in the Nevada Prison gas chamber.

*Written and performed
By
Joseph Galata with Americana Musical Selections
by
Mark Emerson
And the
Many Paths Community
Singers*